

Anna Corine DeLoach

February 28, 1968 - February 18, 2012

Savannah

Anna Corine DeLoach age 43, died Saturday, February 18, 2012 at Hospice Savannah after a long and courageous battle with breast cancer.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 pm, Tuesday, February 21, 2012 from Bonaventure Funeral Home with Rev. Cam Huxford officiating, with interment to follow in Bonaventure Cemetery.

Anna was born February 28, 1968 to the late James H. DeLoach and Jeanette Jarriel DeLoach, who survives of Savannah. She worked as a clerk checker with the Georgia Ports Authority and was a member of Savannah Christian Church and attended Savannah Christian School.

Survivors in addition to her mother are: son, Shane Nicholas Pitts and a daughter, Tiffany Ann Pitts both of Savannah; her finance' Paul Edenfield of Richmond Hill; two brothers, Jimmy DeLoach and Danny DeLoach; a sister, Janet Parker and several nieces and nephews also survives.

The family will be receiving friends Monday, February 20, 2012 from 6-8 pm at Bonaventure Funeral Home.

Please visit our Tribute Wall to share your thoughts and photos with the Anna Corine DeLoach family.

Bonaventure Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements 335-8506