

Azelea Siders Blake

August 26, 1921 - April 5, 2007

Azelea Siders Blake died Thursday April 5, 2007 at Candler Hospital. She was born in Walterboro, SC and educated in the Collecton County School System. She lived in Savannah for the pass 15 years. She was a member of Daniel Holiness Church where she served as the church mother. She is survived by: one daughter, Shirley A. Woods (Johnny) of Savannah, GA; three sisters, Dora Pusha of Savannah, GA, Renal Cameron of Jacksonville, FL, and Phoebe Williams of Walterboro, SC; one brother, Joseph Sider of Philadelphia, PA; five grandchildren; six great-grands; ten great-great grands; one aunt; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other friends. Funeral Service will be held at 11:00 A.M. on Thursday April 12, 2007 at Daniel Holiness Church, located at 1143 Gwinnett Street. Interment will follow at Woodville Cemetery. There will be a visitation held on Wednesday, April 11, 2007 from 6:00-7:00 P.M. in the Williams and Williams Funeral Chapel.