“ He was such a character. He had no boundaries and he was wild and friendly. The last few times I had seen him, he had calmed down a lot. Seems like he had made peace with his life. He is well know in the CAT community through good and bad we will miss him.

Rip Calvin. Thank you for your kind words; you told me that even though you couldn't see my face, you said, I can tell that you are a very beautiful woman. You were so sweet and kept me laughing when you use to call me or see me in the bus. Condolences to the family.
