“ Sis I miss you and I wish I took advantage of the time we shared recently...I reread our messages all the time and just cry...we always shared a bond regardless of the time away or anything in between...I never really knew what it would feel like to miss someone but I miss you sis I love you dearly and I think of you always...I would give anything to text you again and rewind i would've cherished it instead of running away...forever in my heart

“ I'd like to give my deepest condolences to the Bias family. My heart is full reading of “San’s” passing. That’s what I called her. She showed me the ropes when I started at the urgent care years ago. It was always a good time when we worked. She had a big heart and a smile to match. San will be missed. Sending prayers for the family.
