“ Debbie was one of the kindest, most generous people I know. She was also very funny, and so full of energy in her healthier days. She was a dear friend and I'm going to miss her so much. I'm much richer for having known her. Rest in peace, sweet Debbie. Love, Your Birthday Sister, Jeanne

My sincere condolences to the family. Debbie will truly be missed. I will miss the talks we had. The gif, she would send me. We had biblical discussion together every first and third Thursday evening. So gifted in so many areas. I will miss your calls to northeast Georgia area. The Lord knew so he called you home.

“ To my Sister Debbie; my BFF. Over 50 years of friendship. We never argued or fought. It's hard to believe you're no longer in this world. I thank Yahweh for the precious time we had together.

*You fought a good fight; you finished your course; you kept the faith.
(2Tim 4:7)*

RIP My Beautiful Sister.. ❤️

“Debbie’s life mission and commitment to her non profit organization SHADOWS speaks volumes about her heart for children and others. And her mom Mrs Brown “Go “ and her family was there to support herself. Whether it was collecting tooth paste, deodorant or socks for the homeless shelter or sponsoring a less fortunate family at Christmas time she did it all. I will always remember her love for the musical the Lion King, and her deep desire for the shadows kids to see a musical, the mountains, New York, DC and so many other rich cultural experiences it was never ending what she strived to accomplished when she was in good health. I will truly miss my life long friend.
