“ To our family, Aunt Dollie will be so greatly and deeply missed. She was the matriach of her family. Her beautiful soul, so full of love, of understanding and her wit. There will never be another woman such as she. Her laughter and smile will be truly missed. She was loved by all of us and she will be cherished forever in our memories.

“ Sister Bargeran is such a sweet gentle lady all of her life. My mom and her were cousins and would visit each other house and my mom would always say Sister Bargeran you have such a beautiful home and they would sit and love on each other, they went to the same church were members of the Eastern Stars and my mother loved her children Tony, Calvin and Ann and would brag on them and talk about how well the boys could draw. Mr. Rollie her her husband was a loving man but didn't play the radio if you know what I mean. This lady raised a loving family and we always call each other cuz, but they Loved their mother and was truly there to her sweet end in this life now she is gone to spread her love in heaven. Family you have our deepest sympathy. Love you. Cousin Joseph.
