“ The Mitchells quickly became family when we moved to Savannah. Always willing to go the extra mile, Sis Mitchell always wore a smile. She loved her family and had a big heart. I thank God for placing The Mitchells in our lives. It's not often these days that you meet genuine people. Sis Mitchell & Dec Mitchell are united again flying around Heaven.

On behalf of the late Pastor James Hines & Sis Hines, Bryan & myself; we extend our sincerest condolences and love always.

I was Mrs. Mitchell's Caregiver and friend. She became friend and mother to many staff members at Nursing Facility where she stayed. She was well loved and will be greatly missed. 🥹🥹❤️💕

“ Ms Mitchell was one of the sweetest ladies I have ever met. I remember her the most when we went out to eat after her son and Zee got married. She was so kind and always thinking of others. I am so sorry for your loss ! I love you all so very much !
