“ Mrs. Lawrence and family. So sorry to hear about the passing of your husband. I can truly say I feel your pain since I too lost my husband three years ago. My heartfelt prayers are with you and I pray that God will give you the strength for the journey. Prayer is the key to comfort. Remember Proverbs 3:5-6 says: "Trust in the Lord with all they heart and led not to they own understanding. In all thybways acknowledge Him and He SHALL direct they path." Keep the Faith! “ Gabrielle, Kim and I wish to express our deepest sympathies to you and your entire family on Jerry's homegoing. As a friend and former teammate of Jerry's, there were things I knew for sure: He loved the Lord, he loved you, he loved his family, and he loved to play softball (and he loved to win)! I will always treasure our friendship and look forward to seeing Jerry, my teammate and brother in Christ, again, playing healthy, wearing that dirty/sweaty old Yankees cap, and hitting home runs on the ball field in Paradise! I always told Jerry that it looked like he stole that old Yankees cap from Babe Ruth himself! Gabrielle, we will pray that God gives you peace and comfort during these difficult days, and I will be praying with our teammates this weekend at our tournament in Florida. Jerry would have wanted me there to do that.

“ Gabrielle, You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. Bruce and I will forever cherish our times together with you and Jerry. Softball teams bring some of the best people into our lives. It's always a blessing to me to know a person who loves the Lord and shares the blessings with others. Much love, Suzann and Bruce Kennedy

“ Mrs. Lawrence, I am so sorry for your lost. My husband, Ivan passed last November and he was so kind to me In my time of sorrow. Him and Ivan went to the same barber and talk about us. I truly feel your pain. I never met Jerry in person, but our telephone conversations got me through alot of rough moments. Jerry was truly a man of God, and his kindness was truly appreciated. His mission on this earth manifested in his love of God. I thank God for allowing Jerry to touch people he didn't even know, and I thank God for you to accept his mission on this earth. I'm just sorry I never met him in person. May God's peace be with you.
