

Keith Neiswinter

August 27, 1963 - May 13, 2016

Keith Neiswinter, 52, of Savannah, GA passed away Friday, May 13, 2016 at his home.

He was born in Chicago, IL and moved to Winter Haven, Florida in 1970. Keith attended Winter Haven area schools and vocational school to get his Heating and Air Conditioning credentials. He moved to Savannah, GA in 1990 to be closer to family. Keith began working at Coastal Air Service Experts in Savannah and had remained there for 26 plus years until his death.

Survivors include his son, Matthew and Chanelle Neiswinter; grandson, Samuel Neiswinter of Sumter, SC; son, Joshua Neiswinter; grandson, Dante Neiswinter and mother of grandson Dante, Tiffany Serrano of Savannah, GA; parents, Leonard and Rita Neiswinter of Savannah, GA; sister, Monica Neiswinter Jensen of Savannah, GA; niece, Renae Jensen of Savannah, GA; nephew, Alex Jensen of Houston, TX; ex-wife, Gina Haylow of Sumter, SC.

Visitation: 6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. Wednesday, May 18, 2016 at the Baker McCullough Funeral Home Garden City Chapel.

Funeral Service: 2:00 p.m. Thursday, May 19, 2016 in the Chapel of the Baker McCullough Funeral Home Garden City Chapel.

Burial: Greenwich section of Bonaventure Cemetery.

Baker McCullough Funeral Home

2794 West US Highway 80

Garden City, GA 31408

(912)964-2862

www.bakermccullough.com

Tribute Wall

CK

“ What a friend he was to me, in school we used to hang together all the time and I'm sure Monica remembers me. I am chip my brother is Kevin and we all hung out together all the time. We used to ride motorcycles together also. Keith was a great saxophone player and he was in advanced band at the time.

Chip & Kevin - September 21, 2023 at 12:47 AM