“ I was sitting here think about your children I'm gone reach out to them I haven't been there fore them like I want to I was still going through my grieving process and it's not eazy I lost my parents my uncles and my brother and my baby God daddy, I miss coming by seeing ya'll when I drive pass the house you all lived in I get very sad, I'm so sorry your gone you were so full of life but you know deep down in your heart know body knows what a person's going through and I'm sorry I weren't there before you left this world I'm gone step up and help your children and grand kids because I know how much they meant to you, and I know you would have did the same for me. Anyway they God be alright you just Get Your Rest God get your children now and I'm gone be here for them when ever they need me. Sleep peacefully, mayGod bless your soul. ”

“ Letitia girl this got me so down and out girl you were the last person I've ever expected in thing to happen to you were so full of live I wouldn't have Bern able to come to your memorial if I wanted to I've losted over 4 relatives with in lest then 3 yrs and 7 months ago my oldest brother and my cousin it was just to much so i rather had remember you before your passing as you were but just remember you were a cool person and although I didn't stop but much I always though if you and the children just like I'm thinking of you all as I'm writing this this really got me by suprise but you can see someone today and they are gone tomorrow I'm just sorry it had to be you or anyone I hate anyone has to leave that I know but that's just how life is it comes and goes. Anyway you take your rest I'm sure as time passes the children will find comfort in knowing one day you all will be together again. as long as they honor God commandments he will give them the desires of there hearts to be with there mother and I've told jasmine if there's anything they need me for just reach out or message me and I will do what I can to help them because I know you would have done the same if the shoes were on the other feet. so again I will say get your rest now and know your memory will always stay alive through me and the children so rest in peace. Love Barbara, Alexis, And Latoya. 🥺💔🙏
