

Levon Murphy

May 15, 1948 - June 14, 2019

Deacon Levon Murphy 71 husband of Mrs. Johnnie Mae Murphy passed away Friday, June 14, 2019 at home surrounded by his loving family under the care of Spanish Oaks Hospice. Funeral Service Wednesday, June 19, 2019 12pm @ St Mary Missionary Baptist Church 110 Ferrill Street.
Interment: Woodville Cemetery

If tears could build a stairway, and memories a lane. I would walk right up to Heaven and bring you back again....

Cemetery Details

Woodville Cemetery

Robert Street
Savannah, GA 31408

Tribute Wall

MC

“Johnnie Mae, you have my sincere condolences. May you be comforted by Jesus Christ as you remember your husband and love you shared.”

Mary Coleman - June 19, 2019 at 10:20 AM

LR

“We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.” I am fondly remembering my Dear Cousin Levon Murphy who went home to be with The Lord this past Friday. Second only to My Lord, my family means more than anything to me. I think we’re like 4th cousins. But I feel like he was a really nice, cool, stylish uncle. He rarely missed a family reunion and it was always a pleasure to sit with him and hear him give a family history and genealogy lesson. The last time I saw him was at the 40th Anniversary of the Dukes-Murphy-Burgess Family Reunion. We were all strutting in front of the Savannah Riverboat Queen Dinner Cruise. I mean seriously, we literally staged a fashion show with video taken of us in our fashionable attire. We were the last group to board the ship and they said that because we held them up, they did not have time to take a group pic because it was time to set sail! Well... I got mad about that! LOL But I we took this family pic in a private dining room! He is in the tan leisure suit with the fedora hat. Rest in Peace My Dear Cousin! I will always remember you as one of the Coolest Dudes I've ever met!”

Leslie E Royal - June 18, 2019 at 06:06 PM

LR

“We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.” I am fondly remembering my Dear Cousin Levon Murphy who went home to be with The Lord this past Friday. While I love my career, second only to my relationship with My Lord, my family means more than anything to me. Cousin Levon was probably my 4th cousin. But I feel like he was a really nice, cool, stylish uncle. He rarely missed a family reunion and it was always a pleasure to sit with him and hear him give a family history and genealogy lesson. The last time I saw him was at the 40th Anniversary of the Dukes-Murphy-Burgess Family Reunion. We were all strutting in front of the Savannah Riverboat Queen Dinner Cruise. I mean seriously, we literally staged a fashion show with video taken of us in our fashionable attire. We were the last group to board the ship and they said that because we held them up, they did not have time to take a group pic because it was time to set sail! Well... I got mad about that! LOL But I digress! Two years prior, we had a Luau Banquet celebration. We had a selfie booth and I convinced him to go inside to take this photo with me. I'm pretty sure he didn't want to do that. But he did so because I asked. That was always his way. Rest in Peace My Dear Cousin! I will always remember you as one of the Coolest Dudes I've ever met! Sincerely, Leslie E. Royal - Lizzie Mae's Daughter.

Leslie E Royal - June 18, 2019 at 05:33 PM

LC

“ Uncle Levon, I thank God I met you before, you went home to be with the him. I want to say you was an example of a true Christian you loved the Lord and you honored the Lord with everything you had, I can truly say you made it in and when this journey I'm sure to meet you again thank you uncle Lavon!!!

Latoya Cooper - June 18, 2019 at 05:37 AM

DM

“ To the family of Levon, I pray that God will keep you all in perfect peace and understanding that God does not make any mistakes. Sleep in Peace Levon no more pain or suffering.

Denise McNeal

Denise McNeal - June 17, 2019 at 01:08 PM

AP

“ Lit a candle in memory of Levon Murphy

Altanette Powell - June 16, 2019 at 05:30 PM

AP

“ Sleep on goddaddy until we meet again. Love you

Altanette Powell - June 16, 2019 at 09:34 AM