

Margaret "Peggy" Ann Trainor

April 17, 1947 - August 11, 2020

Margaret "Peggy" Ann Trainor went to be with Jesus earlier this week on August 11th. We honor her beautiful life and the woman of God she is, how blessed we are to have known her. To know her is to love her. She was faithful to the beautiful work God called her to and had a zeal for the things of God like no other. 🕊

Due to restrictions of COVID-19 the arrangements will include a small private ceremony. We know how loved she is and how many of you would love to be there in person, therefore, the family has arranged to have Peggy's ceremony streamed via Facebook Live on the Bonaventure Funeral Chapel Of Savannah page this Saturday August 15th at 10:00am. Please keep John, Shelia, Michael and the entire family in your prayers! We love you all and thank you for the outpouring of love you have extended.

Due to CDC recommendations regarding COVID-19 and with our community's safety in mind this will be a private invitation only service

“ I can still hear her voice saying "Ginger!" Every morning prayer call was marked by that one exasperated word, as we prayed and Ginger played. Miss you Peg-O'-my-heart.

“ We were so blessed that Peggy and Michael were able to go to Guatemala with us last summer on our mission trip! She was such a wonderful prayer warrior who loved everyone!

“ Peggy was an equal banter. She and I would pick at each other until I would finally give up. I will miss our game nights filled with laughter and her gregarious spirit. Love you Peggy and God richly bless your family with the same love you bestowed on them.

“Peggy was a beautiful friend and I will always treasure our friendship and my memories of our times together, here in Georgia and back in Maryland. I am happy she is with Jesus, although I will miss her greatly, and look forward to the day I will be with her again in heaven.

“The person who always was in my heart full of wisdom and knowledge. The person who never judged me and the most sweetest lady around. Thank you for the wonderful memories.

“ I hadn't seen Peggy in many years, but looking at her pictures her warm and welcoming smile never changed. Some of my earliest memories as a child include her, especially remembering times at our grandparents house in Pittsburgh, sitting in the parlor of their row house with our Pap. She was always kind to me.

My heartfelt sympathies go out to you John, Jack and your families. Rest in peace with the Lord Peggy Trainor.
