“ I miss you every single day, not a day go past that a memory of you doesnt cross my mind . As much as niyah and I used to get on your nerves one thing we always knew was you loved us. As much as I wish we can have you back thatll be selfish of me because I know youre in a better place and youre not in pain anymore . Continue to watch over Mema and our family. We love you papa !

“ I wont say its gotten easier, because it hasnt. There are so many things I miss about you. Most of all I want you to see your grandkids. But I know you see them. I talk about you all the time. They see pics and videos of you all the time. You live on through us and our memories. Selfishly I want you back, but I know I will see you again one day. I love you dad.

“ It doesn't feel like it has been a year. It feels like just yesterday. Like you are still here and I can just pick up the phone and call you. Some days I am okay, and other days I fall into a deep darkness of sadness. Some days I remember the good times other days I question why did you have to leave us soon. Words cannot describe how much I miss you. I know you are in heaven pain free smiling down on us. But I selfishly wish that you were still here. You are my dad and I loss a part of me when you left. But I take comfort in the time we did get to spend together. We all miss you so much and we are still trying to figure out how to go on without you. I am doing my best to help mom. She misses you a lot. Until we meet again...

“ Today is the 1 year anniversary of my husband Mark Luckie memorial. Words can't express how hard it has been, how lonely and lost I have been without my best friend. Honestly each breath this year has been constricted and I feel like I am lost at sea drifting trying to find the anchor. I love you so much Mark Luckie you will always be my forever love.

“ I miss you so much Honey, words can't express how empty my life is without you. I know you said I would be fine without you, but I am not fine. Eventually I will be able to breathe without it hurting and smile without crying. I long for you to hold me and tell me everything will be ok. To see that special smile you had just for me. To have you call me Betty Jean again, I won't complain even though I hate the Jean part. Happy birthday Mark, love you always your wife Betty

“ I am not sure where to start. How do you put a lifetime of memories into a paragraph? I can start by saying I miss you. Everything I am the good (and the sarcastic) came from you and mom. I miss our long talks. Whether it was about the future, my marriage, my hopes and dreams. I miss it all. You showed me what it means to commit to something, to work hard, to be there for your family, and to make solid choices. I don't know what I am going to do now that you are gone. I keep you in my phone and sometimes I go to call you. It has been hard on the family because we miss you. You were our rock. Hard on the outside and a softie on the inside. The most painful part is that you never got to meet Skylar. You were so excited about her and you messaged me everyday to check in on us. I couldn't wait for you to meet her. I know she would have loved you so much. I looked forward to seeing you hold her and have tea parties. I know how much she meant to you and it's why she will carry on your name. This family has suffered a great loss now that you have gone. But we have gained so much by having you in our lives. You live on through us. Always and forever. I am SO HAPPY and thankful that I got to call you Dad. I miss you and I know you are watching over us. Until we meet again....

“ Good Bye Brother Heaven has called upon you today leaving so many words left to say but now it's too late for your time has come words unspoken I am sure everybody has some. Regrets and wishes are probably there too but lasting forever are memories of you. I was there when you needed a person to listen. Just like you would be there for me night or day. There have been many times that we disagreed but we were there for each other in time of need. Now it's time for me to say Good bye until we meet again in heaven to fly. In Dedication to Mark Luckie believe me your name will live on Luv your Sister Audrey Luckie Jackson
