

Patrick J. Duncan

December 23, 1989 - November 8, 2022

Patrick Justin Duncan, 32, of Savannah, was called home on November 8, 2022. He is preceded in death by his grandfather's Raymond Krikorian and Butch Arnold. Patrick is survived by his daughter, Ryleigh Duncan; father Bill Duncan; mother Joanne Duncan; sisters Erica McGaha (Mark) and Caroline King (Ryan); grandmothers Mildred Arnold and Dorothy Kingston; Grandfather Bill Duncan, Sr (Valerie), niece Isabella McGaha, and two aunts, three uncles, and many cousins. Patrick is also survived by Jessica Roles whom he loved dearly and was grateful for their time together. Patrick graduated from Londonderry High School in 2008, and then he proudly served his country as a United States Marine. Patrick worked hard, played hard, and loved fiercely. He was an American patriot who championed his fellow veterans. Patrick found enjoyment in cheering on the Boston Red Sox and the Boston Bruins. He also had a passion to be a bright light to the less fortunate and was known to offer a smile, friendship, and give what he could to anyone in need. Patrick was an avid animal lover and dogs held a very special place in his heart.

One of his greatest joys was to spend time with loved ones.

Accepting Christ into his life brought Patrick comfort and peace as well as fellowship with people throughout many walks of life. Rest in peace, Patrick, because you are now free, fully restored, and fully healed. One day we will be united again in our heavenly home, but until then you will be forever in our hearts and missed daily.
