and stepmother Susie Brown. Peter was educated in the Savannah Chatham County Public School System. He graduated from Herschel V. Jenkins High School (home of the Warriors) in 1979 and went to Savannah Vocational Technical College where he learned the trade of brick making.

On February 13, 1998 Peter married his life long companion Charla Williams-Brown. The two were married for 23 years before his transition.

Brown, two sisters Johnnie Mae Bee and Georgia Bee, and two brothers Anthony Bee and Carl Bee. His and friends.

Peter was a faithful employee at Jere Antique for many years. You always knew when Peter was at work just by looking for his daily bread, bible, and coke as soon as you walk through the front door.

Peter was well known as the life of the party. He often would say his name was Peter “Thanksgiving”

Brown, no matter what day Thanksgiving fell on it was his birthday even if his actual birthday was the next day. He always kept everyone laughing. He never forgot the stories from his life. He told the story of how his mother use to walk from the housing projects to work at The Varsity every shift, he was proud to wash her feet in a basin after work. Peter would walk around singing “God told Moses if you do my will” and that was it because he couldn’t really remember the words. He would always talk about Mother Mactell from church and Sunday School.

Between his loud singing, good cooking, and genuine smile he was just the guy you needed to see if you were having a bad day. His favorite saying to say when he was tired was “I’m hanging in there” and he truly did. Funeral service will be held 11am Friday, January 7, 2022 at
