“ He is and was... yet forever will remain my number 2 big brother in order of position. Reggie you are the best person I'll ever know. That loving energy, humbleness, never giving up attitude that was your trademark will forever more be the trademark of your memories. Do rest my brother, but only for a little while. God has release you from this frail body to an spiritual body go forth and walk... you are healed.

Continual love from your little brother
